FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25TH

9:30 am - 10:45 am Responding to the Divine: Reckless Abandon with Dalton Travis Gray

Dalton Travis Gray's passionate pursuit of God resulted in multiple angel visitations and a translation to the Throne of God and Paradise in his early 20s. He successfully pursued a career in the music industry for over a decade before leaving to form Stones of Zion Ministries. Dalton will share his music and his experience of Heaven, focusing on how we all can listen to the voice of God and help bring Heaven to Earth.

11:00 am - 12:15 pm Painting the Invisible with Akiane Kramarik and Gene Glaeser

Join Akiane Kramarik in a discussion led by entrepreneur, art historian, and pastor, Gene Glaeser, exploring the practice of creating spiritual art and inspiring another generation of artists to connect to their Creator. Listen to stories behind Akiane's paintings and techniques, learn about the different facets of art business, and discover why art is vital to increasing faith across the world.

12:00 pm - 4:00 pm Personal Calligraphy with Calligraphy by Rhodalynn Jetton

Rhodalynn Jetton will bring guests' words, names, and scriptures to life in an interactive art exhibit. As a multimedia artist who practices calligraphy and abstract art, she creates a place of holistic expression that invites others into an experience of drawing nearer to God.

12:30pm - 1:15 pm Meet & Greet with Dalton Travis Gray

Meet Dalton Travis Gray for book and print signings and photo opportunities.

12:45 pm - 1:15 pm Live Music with Ryan DeSiato

Ryan DeSiato is an award-winning professional singer, guitarist, and songwriter who performs a mix of soulful rock, gospel-folk, blues ballads, and psychedelic instrumental Spanish guitar. He has played nationally and internationally with artists such as Ian Moore, Monte Montgomery, and Big Wreck.

1:30 pm - 2:15 pm Jesus' Parables: The Kingdom of Heaven is like... with James B. Janknegt

A Catholic artist and muralist, James B. Janknegt's paintings often depict parables and stories from the Bible. He is devoted to reestablishing the art of painting that can be called Christian in the great tradition of the Church before reformation, and the outburst of iconoclasm changed the world of art forever. James will share his work of translating parables into a visual vernacular using modern images from everyday life.

1:45 pm - 5:00 pm Meet & Greet with Akiane Kramarik

Meet Master Fine Artist Akiane Kramarik for book and print signings and photo opportunities. "Prince of Peace" prints and Akiane's books will be available for purchase at the Fall Affair Market.

2:30 pm - 3:15 pm Praise His Name with Dancing! A Dance to Glory Performance

With a mission to regain the performing arts and classical ballet for the glory of the Kingdom of God, Dance to Glory will present unique dance pieces on the main stage that magnify, glorify, and worship the Lord.

Guests can leave messages and read messages others have left.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26TH

9:30 am - 10:15 am Imagine Heaven with John Burke

New York Times bestselling author and pastor John Burke will share his compelling research after studying over 1,000 cases of people who clinically died and came back to tell about it. Is Heaven real? If so, what's it like? Those he has interviewed say they were more alive than ever, in a place more real and beautiful than Earth, while being in the presence of a God of light and love they never wanted to leave. Discover Heaven through John's presentation, which includes exclusive video interviews and a compelling case of how these testimonies align with scripture.

10:30 am - 11:30 am A Conversation with Akiane Kramarik and John Burke

In an exclusive interview, Akiane will discuss with New York Times Bestseller John Burke how Heaven is revealed through art and personal stories. Come explore the different ways Akiane's art, including the "Prince of Peace" painting, connects to near-death experiences researched and written about by John in his books, "Imagine Heaven" and "Imagine the God of Heaven."

11:45 am - 12:45 pm Tempest Live Painting with Sam Ryan

Sam Ryan is an artist, poet, and influencer whose colorful portrayals of Jesus's earthly life have inspired a generation. In an unprecedented appearance, Sam will embellish a giclee canvas of his masterpiece, "Tempest". Sam aims to bridge epochs and emotions in everything he creates, drawing deeply from old and new history and the myriad of curiosities that pique his interest. Andy Dollerson will join Sam on stage, bringing live music into the experience.

11:45 am - 12:45 pm Live Music with Andy Dollerson

Andy Dollerson's love for performing piano has led to sessions for world-renowned artists, international tours, composing for award-winning media, and producing talented independent artists worldwide. His passion for blending organic, analog, and digital sound is where Andy now situates himself as he writes for film, television, and video games. Andy will bring his creative compositions to the stage along with Sam Ryan's live painting.

12:00 pm - 2:00 pm Meet & Greet with Akiane Kramarik
